

JAUW INTERNATIONAL FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM

The Japanese Association of University Women (JAUW) established the International Fellowship Program on April 1 in 1987. This program was made possible by generous donations to the Association.

Objective of the Program

To allow promising non-Japanese women researchers/graduate students to conduct research in Japan by providing them with a fellowship. They will be able to spend a period of time (4-6 months) in residence in a research institute/university in Japan.

2023 JAUW INTERNATIONAL FELLOWSHIP APPLICATION DETAILS

Application Deadline

March 31, 2023

Outline of JAUW International Fellowship Program

- The program is open to applications between October 2022, and March 31, 2023.
- The program will allow a maximum of 2 recipients, each winning between 500,000 yen and up to 1,000,000 yen to support transportation to and from Japan and living costs for her stay in Japan.
- The period of stay in Japan under this program is 4 to 6 months between October 2023 and March 2024.
- The program cannot be extended in any event.

Applicant Eligibility

1. Applicants must be non-Japanese women below the age of 45 as of March 31, 2023.
2. Applicants must reside outside Japan at the time of application.
3. Applicants must hold a Master's Degree or above.
4. Applicants need to identify an institute/university in Japan where they will conduct research. They need to have contacted and obtained a consent from a prospective host supervisor at the identified institute/university before application.

JAUW will not extend any help regarding this matter.

Required Application Documents to be submitted by postal mail to the JAUW.

1. Application Form 1
2. Application Form 2
3. Recommendation letters from three different individuals
4. Letter of Acceptance from the Prospective Host Supervisor
5. Certificate of Health

Announcement of Results

The awardees of this fellowship will be notified by e-mail in the middle of June, 2023. Toward the end of July in 2023, their names will be made public on the JAUW web-site.

We will send an e-mail notifying the results to all the other applicants by the end of June, 2023.

Responsibilities when selected as an awardee

- You must arrange your own accommodations with help by your host supervisor in Japan.
- You must engage in the proposed research for which the fellowship is awarded.
- You must submit a written summary report of your research in 500 to 700 words by the end of the funding period.
- You will be asked to make an oral presentation on your research report toward the end of the funding period at a meeting to be held by JAUW.
- You should acknowledge JAUW support when you publish research results obtained during this program.
- If you need to change your initial schedule due to unforeseen or unavoidable reasons, you must obtain a prior written approval from the JAUW President.
- Any serious delay in the official procedure such as delay in the issuing of your visa, despite no fault on your part, may result in the cancellation of the fellowship.

JAUW President: Prof. Emerita Iwamura Michiko

Committee Chair: Prof. Emerita Kano Takayo

For questions, email internationalfellow@jauw.org

PRIVACY POLICY

We respect applicants' right to privacy. The JAUW uses the information provided by the applicants only to select awardees for the JAUW International Fellowship Program.

We do not provide any personally identifiable information about any applicant to any third parties for any purpose.